SZOMBATHELY - THE ANCIENT SAVARIA

The centre of Vas County, Szombathely, is situated in the western border of Hungary, 20 km far from the feet of the Alps. The town has a history overarching 2000 years, being founded by the emperor Claudius in 43 as Savaria, along the Amber Road trade route running through the ancient imperial province, Pannonia. Szombathely is special for considering the only settlement in the Carpathian Basin being uninterruptedly inhabited since its Roman foundation. The town is full of historical monuments originated from the Roman Age as well as valuable old buildings evoking the atmosphere of old times.
